1. See here is water! Spirit sign
Here poured on Christian kind,
Where eyes are blessed by gift unseen,
That grace of death and rising,
Free-flowing, unconfined,
From him who died, who shared our lot,
And rose, our sin and death erasing,
And raises us, and laves our lives in light.
2. O Father, as on Noah's flood
The saving ark you bore,
And as the Red Sea waters fled,
(Though Pharaoh's host destroying)
And Israel reached the shore,
So come; so let the work begin,
Your mercy's rainbow arc displaying;
So lift the rod, and part the waves again.
3. Such Christianhood then grant us all,
Enchurched beneath that sign,
That Spirit-washed, refreshed and called,
Recast in Christ's own daring,
Lived wonder we discern,
As soldiers in mysterious strife,
As servants to a bounteous caring,
Who find in him the way, the truth, the life.
