1. Not by measure sends the Father
Spirit treasure through the Son,
In such splendours
Comprehends us,
Claimed as children for his own,
Past all fancy
Named as family,
Breadth, length, height and depth to fathom.
2. Emptied of the Father's glories,
Servant-formed to human guise,
Christ so daring,
Cross enduring,
There transfix our wayward gaze;
And that likeness,
Spirit, live in us,
Till God's image in us glistens.
3. Spirit, to our spirits' travail
Groaning under fears and cares,
Bear your witness
Deep within us,
Cry us "Father!" Christ's own heirs;
Sons' and daughters'
Aweful dauntlessness
Pledge us for our pilgrim travel.
4. Great Creator, Helper, Saviour,
One in truth, our truth be now;
Grace forefend us,
Make us, mend us,
Wonder, trust and love renew;
Holy beauty,
Thou Community,
Father, Son and Spirit ever.
