1. Still your gift of church you offer,
Still, O Jesus, willed in hope,
Ever judged, forsaken never,
Father's household, Spirit home.
2. Not by might but by that Spirit
Here, a baptized folk, we stand,
Table-fed and outward-speeded,
Church to this world's time-worn end.
3. Be her saving health in weakness;
In dissension be her judge.
Strengthen yet her failing witness;
Make her yet your holy church.
4. Help her love this world you purchased,
Feel its woes and heal its wars,
Greet its claims with faith and patience,
Meet with angels unawares.
5. Make your church peculiar treasure,
Chosen race and royal priest,
Once no people, now your pleasure,
Dearly priced but dearly prized.
